Contestants must not have ever been convicted of any crime or have any criminal charges pending. Past Lonoke County Fair Queens are ineligible to compete again until they age up into the next Fair Queen division.

What will I have to do? There will be a private interview with the judges, and you will compete in evening gown, and answer a question on stage or if we have enough contestants, we will substitute the onstage question for an on-stage conversation.

What can I win? You will receive a beautiful official Arkansas State Fair County Crown and county sash that will be worn to compete in the Arkansas State Fair that will display the ASF logo and will match other county fair sister queens across the state, flowers, trophy, cash prize (amount will be determined by how many contestants we have), and the opportunity to compete at the Arkansas State Fair for more wonderful prizes and scholarships.

What is the interview about? This is a private, timed (five-minute) conversation. It is a great opportunity to showcase your personality to the judging panel. Come prepared to talk about the topics on your entry form, current events, the fair in general, including but not limited to, this year's fair theme. This counts for 50% of your total score.

What should I wear? For interview think bright, fun with flair, yet professional. Pantsuit, casual dress, jumpsuit, skirt etc. This outfit will be what you will wear for interview and onstage question. For evening gown, you may wear a gown of your choice. We encourage you to wear something age appropriate. Come ready to showcase your poise and confidence. Stage presence, eye contact, posture, and overall impression are important too. This portion will count as 30% of your total score.

Onstage question/conversation: For the conversation portion (if there is at least 4 contestants) contestants will be called to the stage in groups of 3 or 4, this is a 3-minute timed event where the emcee will lead the conversation by asking a question, and contestants will participate in a conversation with each other. One or two follow up questions may also be asked by the emcee. This phase is judged on a contestant's ability to speak confidently but listens sincerely. Judges are instructed to view this competition as a visual of how a contestant will present herself as a title holder and be representative of the Lonoke Couty Fair in a public setting. On stage question will be a random question asked from choosing question from a bowl and handing it to the emcee who will read the question. Same type of judging criteria as with the on-stage conversation. This portion will count for 20% of your total score.

What about crowd favorite? Yes, we will have a crowd favorite table set up behind the audience. This is a way for your family and friends to show their support for you and it helps us to fund the contest and awards. There will be bags set up on a table with each girl's name on the bags, votes are in the form of money. In each division we will count money collected and the girl with the most money in her bag will receive half of the money she received in her bag and will be named crowd favorite. This has absolutely no bearing on the pageant. The judges will not know who wins this until it is announced to everyone. You may collect money from friends and family before the pageant if you want and add proceeds to your bag when you arrive.

Rehearsal: Rehearsals will be held on Thursday, September 11 and Friday, September 12, at 6pm. You do not have to be at both we offer two opportunities, so everyone has equal chance to practice in case they have ball games or other extracurricular activities.
